

“Robert is saving up for his own flat.”

Danny,
Robert's Employment Officer

“Robert had told teachers that he wanted to get a part-time job in the evenings or weekends. He wanted some pocket money and to work with other young people, not necessarily a career at this stage.

Pure helped him find a job at WH Smith. His role is to scan in new products following delivery and then to replenish stock on the shop floor ready for sale the following morning.

Robert continues to attend college and has spent some of his earnings on a provisional driving licence.”
